2015 Parish? Update

The question mark behind parish is to remind everyone, that Holy Family is a mission of Our Lady of the Mountains Catholic Church in Jackson. This highlights the question which was before the combined Finance & Parish Councils at their meeting on March 22nd. Is it time that we work to become a separate parish with our own assigned priest?

There are three criteria for becoming a parish. #1 is formal approval by the Bishop. #2 is the availability of a priest to be the Pastor. #3 is the financial stability of the proposed parish. At their meeting, the Councils made #3 their priority, recognizing that if we move forward on becoming a separate parish, no new pastor wants to start his parish when it is saddled with debt.

Another factor becoming increasingly evident is the determination of our congregation to follow Pope Francis' evangelization request. Week after week we see new faces and meet new people as our Church family continues to grow. This increased growth creates a need for a priest here in the Valley, rather than requiring our priests to travel from Jackson more frequently, to meet our growing needs.

The Councils recognized that the need to take care of our outstanding liabilities is essential to establishing our financial stability. These outstanding liabilities are from the construction of our church. We had two parishioners, who generously loaned Holy Family $133,000 for the completion of the church that we enjoy today. While we could stretch these loans out over a longer term, the Councils did not view that as a viable option.

The repayment of these loans is our fundraising goal for this year. The classrooms will be complete, thanks to an incredible volunteer effort this year from a team organized by John Price which included Lynn Backus, Bill Tully, Jeff Palmer, Floyd Schell, Victoria Ross, Danny Denig, Dolores Albers, John Howard, Mike Hobby, Neal Zeren, Jim Norman & family, Victor & Chuck Hardesty, Ralph Boedeker, Roxie Elfering, Ray Price, Osualdo Garcia-Ruiz & family, Jose' Garcia-Ruiz, Jack Leaven, Billy Barnett, Steve Wicks, Fashion Flooring, Peak Glass (Jay Anderson) and Jenkins Ace Hardware (Dave Jenkins). We have funds reserved for completion of the south side classroom access, front sidewalks, and some landscaping that has to be done with the concrete work.

Father Randy has agreed to discuss our plans with the Bishop this spring and make sure that we are headed in the correct direction. Our task is to do everything possible to pay down the debt and continue evangelizing the Valley. Our debt reduction does not preclude fund raisers aimed at a particular capital project that needs to be done. Completion of the concrete on the north side of the Church and additional landscaping would fall into that category as long as they didn't become big ticket items.

We know that the generosity of our Holy Family parishioners will make this possible, just as you have made our new church possible. If we keep in mind Jesus' commandments to "love" and "to go and make disciples", we will continue to move forward in becoming the Church that we all want. Thank you to everyone for your support.
